

Falmouth Climate Action Network

Climate Book Club

We've known for decades that climate change is an existential crisis. For just as long, we've seen the complete failure of our institutions to rise to the challenge. Governments have struggled to meet even modest goals. Even though we have seen growing concern from everyday people, civil society has succeeded only in pressuring decision makers to adopt watered-down policies. All the while, the climate crisis worsens. Is there any hope of achieving the systemic change we need?

Important, accurate and clear eyed about the challenges we face and the big efforts needed to save our selves. — Irish Tech News

... Useful insights into the increasingly disruptive climate campaigns spreading around the world.
— Financial Times

When and where:

Monday, July 8, 2024

7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Falmouth Main Street Public Library

Meet in the Bay Room

Use the QR code at right to register
(or email: falmouthcan@gmail.com)

FalCAN is a Falmouth-focused community group with an important mission:

“To initiate and collaborate in activities that our community can take in response to the climate emergency—through education, sharing of best practices, and advocacy of impactful policies.”

Contact us at: falmouthcan@gmail.com